

Good afternoon everyone,

Heads Up!

Just a quick heads up for the first week back after half term.

Firstly, it is the book fair from Tuesday to Friday. We always look forward to that, there is something about the smell of new books, isn't there?

Also on that first Friday afternoon (28th Feb), it is Open Doors. We are looking forward to sharing your children's work with you.

'It is one of the best things we do at our school' (a quote from a meeting I had last week!)

Brilliant!

To wet your whistle for open doors, here are some of the creative activities we have been working on here at RWPA. So the photographs this week are all of children performing or enjoying various creative things that have happened in the last week or so. From music to dance to speaking and acting. Great stuff!
