

Good afternoon everyone,

Welcome back after the half term. Hopefully everyone had a happy and a not 'too wet' holiday! It has been nice to return to gate duty and to be greeted with lots of happy 'good mornings' and smiles.

I am sending my letter out a day early this week as it is Open Doors tomorrow afternoon! We are really looking forward to sharing the children's work with you, ahead of parents evening coming soon.

It also gives me the opportunity to remind you that it is the last day for Book Fair too, which we will be hosting in the brown hall. (we have had to move it to approximately 3:30 ready for Karate).

Parents survey

Please read through our parent survey results below. We were overwhelmed with the number of responses, thank you greatly for taking part. It is one of the many ways we use to evaluate the feelings around what we are getting right here at school and where we can improve.

Austrian Visitors!

This week and next week we welcome Austrian Students who are working and studying teaching with us. Miss Offenburger, Miss Graser, Miss Capella, and Miss Zellhoffer are working across school as part of a partnership link we offer with PH Linz (a university of education in Linz in Austria.) They have settled in so well and the children at school have been so welcoming. They are writing a piece for our website too which we will publish when they have finished it.

Please say hello if you see them tomorrow.

Poetry Week

For World Book day next week, we are holding a poetry theme - my favourite! What a great chance to get out all your old favourites at home ready to read to your children. Here's one of mine that I will be sharing when I get the chance.

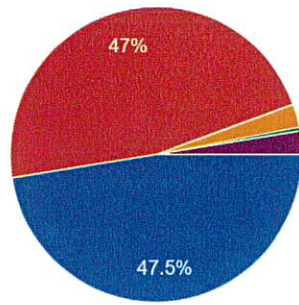

There was a young farmer of Leeds
Who swallowed six packets of seeds.
It soon came to pass
He was covered with grass,
And he couldn't sit down for the weeds.

Have a lovely weekend everyone.
