

EBOR ACADEMY TRUST

Key principles for opening our primary schools to more children

AIM

Capacity

Space

Uptake

Contingency

Four key principles underpinning routes to safely opening primary schools to more children

1. The safety of our staff and children is paramount
2. First priority must be vulnerables, critical worker children and those with EHCP
3. Begin with the youngest children first, where staffing supports and move upwards from there
4. For the further year group integration – a staggered, part-time model will be implemented.