Friday 12TH MAY 2023

This week has seen our Year 6 pupils really excel themselves in terms of their learning behaviour and attitude. They have worked hard and put in 100% effort and made us all proud. Although we don't have a great deal of additional news this week there are a couple of dates added for your information.

BOOK SALE

Our fantastic team of librarians are really keen to raise some money to buy some new books for our school library so we have decided to host a 50p book sale in the last week of term (specific dates for Key Stage 1 and Key Stage 2 to follow). Please could we ask you to sort through your book collections at home and send in any donations for the sale over the next two weeks. Please ensure any donations are in good condition with no missing pages!

We welcome feedback around aspects of our school. Please click the icon above to respond to the short survey which Ofsted will use when they visit our school. Thank you
