

Job description

Have you ever considered a career in education catering? With many exciting roles across our regions there are several opportunities available for catering assistants, supervisory management, and cooks. Full training is provided within our successful family business. (A background in education catering setting is not required)

Here are some of just some of the benefits available within our education contracts:

- Excellent work life balance.
- 14 weeks holiday p.a.
- Flexible working opportunities.
- Career advancement opportunities.
- Competitive rates aligned to living wage.

At Hutchison Catering we are a team of experienced professionals who tailor our catering service provision meeting the bespoke requirements of each school and client that we serve across the UK.

We are currently looking for a General Catering Assistants to work in one of our education sites in the York YO32 5UH area. We offer a competitive salary, uniform and ongoing training and development.

The role of Catering Assistant involves:

- Cleaning the kitchen, including washing kitchen appliances, work surfaces, floors and walls.
- Carrying out basic food hygiene preparation tasks.
- Ensuring chefs are equipped with the food and tools they need.
- Helping the chef get ready for service by preparing food. Catering assistants may be expected to peel, trim or wash food so it is ready to be cooked.
- Loading and unloading the dishwasher
- Helping to serve meals to customers

Working: Monday to Friday

Job Types: Casual Contract to run until July 2024

Schedule: 20 hours per week

Salary: £11.44 per hour

Experience: Catering: 1 year (preferred but not essential)

Please contact Susie Arnold on 07500 958950 or email susie@hutchisoncatering.co.uk